
• The Quiet Church

Ministry for the dissolutioned, disenfranchised, and deconstructed.

Ministry Focus

I've spent the last 20 years discipling and ministering to individuals and couples, writing blogs, and publishing books in my spare time. However, last year the Lord gave me a clear word that he wants me to begin preaching. I started on TikTok in late December, and have creating hundreds vidoes, and hosted dozens of Live Teachings.

What I've learned is that there is a rapidly growing contingent who have become dissolusioned with the current model of Church. As a result, they are seeking answers and community outside the walls of the conventional model. A void which is rapidly being filled by influencers and social media personalities.

While there is a lot of good coming from this, there is also a lot of confusion. And whether we like it or not, this is where many people are going for their information. My goal is to be a light in this space, while continuing to encourage face to face gathering. In the short time I've been doing this, I've been shocked at how hungry people are for the truth (particularly believers). With the right support, I believe I can help a lot of people find it.

Current State

Since I started seriously preaching in Febuary of 2025, my TikTok channel has grown to 15k followers and increases by nearly 100 followers every day. My YouTube channel is already at 300 subscribers and climbing, and my live teachings average 30-70 attendees every week.

All of this is being done in a part time capacity. With your support, I believe I can double my output, and exponentially increase my reach by expanding to other platforms, and managing my content more effectively.

Dude!!!! I have NEVER heard the purpose of prayer taught so eloquently as in the way you just presented it. Lord Jesus!! "Prayer is an act of defiance of our reality." I felt that in my bones, man. The engrafted word saving my soul.

Thank you brother for keepin' on keepin' on. It's like John the baptist declaring the good news, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!" Keep declaring!

Why I'm raising money

I've always preferred to walk by faith, and not involve others financially. However, the Lord has begun to show me that my efforts are being hindered by that view, and that it requires as much faith to ask for support as it does to wait for his miraculous supply. So, in faith I am inviting you to participate if you feel led by The Spirit and see value in the work I'm doing.

Partners will receive profit sharing in every book I write for The Quiet Church, until 100% of your investment is paid back, +10%.
